SEMrush Data & Metrics

Where does SEMrush data come from?

What data can SEMrush provide?

What is Search Volume in SEMrush? Question

Search volume is the average number of times a specific search query is entered on a search engine per month.

The volume in the main SEMrush database represents the number of searches using national level data. Therefore, volume can change when you change the regional database you're viewing (US, Canada, UK, etc).

To find a keyword's search volume, enter the keyword in the SEMrush search bar to pull the Keyword Overview report:

In addition to the monthly search volume in a regional database, the Keyword Overview will also show you a keyword's global volume. This is the sum of the keyword's monthly search volumes across all of our regional databases.

Average monthly search volume represents the number of times the keyword was searched over the past twelve months divided by 12. For seasonal and trending keywords, this number could be higher or lower than the average in certain months.

SEMrush search volumes are updated on a monthly basis. This is to account for the most recent search data from Google and changes in the search results. Historical data is available to research the recorded average search volumes of keywords in every month dating back to January 2012.

In addition to volume, SEMrush provides the CPC and competitiveness of keywords with our Competition Level and Keyword Difficulty metrics. CPC and Competition level relate to Google Ads and Keyword Difficulty relates to SEO.

Local Search Volume

In order to view local search volume for a keyword, you will need to set up a Position Tracking or PPC Keyword Tool campaign with a set geographic location.

SEMrush Volume Calculation Method

To calculate volumes with the highest accuracy, we use machine learning algorithms and petabytes of accumulated data from search engines. The latter gives us a huge advantage in terms of the ability to train the algorithms we've created.

Here's what the process of volume calculation looks like:

1. SEMrush takes sets of data from third-party providers and overlays it with historical clickstream data acquired from reliable sources.
2. SEMrush forwards the resulting set of data to a computing cluster and receives a computational model.

What is Search Volume in SEMrush? question - Data & Metrics | SEMrush

a computational model.

3. SEMrush applies this model to get the volumes for billions of keywords.

Bing Search Grows to 26%+ of US Search Market according to Comscore

Ever since we started our of the well known search engine statistics research firm in 2017, we've noticed that the most ubiquitous known search engine was slowly losing their market share. Back at that time, Google held onto 63.2% at the time of all the US searches online. However, you can see below that they are now down to 61% and closing in on the 50s. Simultaneously, Microsoft's search engine Bing has crept up to over a quarter of America's searches. In the following table, you'll see the two (2) largest search engines' latest market share.

Despite the loss of market share, Google's gross searches haven't decreased.. In January/February of 2018, google had more than 10 billion searches (10,352,000,000 to be exact) conducted on the dominant website. However, here in October of 2020, the #1 player in this market has grown their search base 19.5% since then. of photographs I took of the outside of the Plaza Mini-Mart and the Cohiba cigars I was shown there.

3. I purchased two of the Cohiba Blue cigars that the clerk showed me. Attached hereto as Annex 2 are true and correct copies of the cigars I purchased from the Plaza Mini-Mart and the receipt for same. Each Cohiba Blue cigar cost $11.99.

4. On January 18, 2021, prior to physically going to the Plaza Mini-Mart, I had visited the website for the Plaza Mini-Mart – <http://plazaminimart.com/>. This website indicates that the Plaza Mini-Mart is located at 5022 W. Lawrence Avenue in Chicago, Illinois (the same location I visited). It shows the following image on its homepage and under the “Category” of “Fine cigars”:

5. I told the clerk that the Plaza Mini-Mart’s website showed a Cohiba Siglo II cigar and asked if they sold that Cohiba cigar as well. The clerk said that they did not have any in stock but they could get some if I wanted. I did not ask them to get me that cigar.

ABOUT US

Larry's Drive Thru & Mini Mart is located on a busy highway just 1.5 miles east from the center of Poland, Ohio and less than 2 miles from the Pennsylvania line and has created a one stop shop for most people. We believe we have hit the convenience – and – value sweet spot for many of our customers.

Besides a large inventory of domestic beers, Larry's has over 500 craft beers to choose from and a selection of over 900 varieties of wine. Our newest addition is a large humidor with some of the finest cigars for sale. We carry the wine favorites found in your traditional retailers but also offer wines found only in boutiques and restaurants. Our unique store takes the customer experience one step further. With a full on premise consumption license (including Sundays), customers are able to drink their favorite wines, beers (some on tap) and margaritas while shopping or waiting on a food or grocery order. This creates a unique shopping experience for our customers.

Our Grab N Go features cheeses, pepperonis and sausages, along with our homemade sides and pizzas. Most shoppers associate mini mart operations with higher prices than larger traditional retailers- we aren't that expensive mini mart. From the second you walk through the door you notice that we are anything but traditional. Larry's offers not just big store pricing, but speed, convenience and value.

At Larry's, customers can also find typical convenience store foods such as ICEE's, hot dogs, pepperoni rolls, Broaster chicken and wings, gyros, sandwiches, salads and more. Larry's has daily specials in addition to their already extensive menu. Wing, meat and cheese, fruit, sub and many more party trays can be made to order. We can make a tray out of just about anything on our menu.

For the ultimate in convenience, Larry's offers all our services online. You can order your dinner, groceries, beer and wine (anything we sell) online and easily pick them up. Everything can be ordered ahead on our website and put into your car for you when you enter through our double drive thru. You also have the option to pick up your orders in our store. Online services are made possible by ServeRight Software.

With the purchase of new delivery vans, our home delivery service has completed the ultimate convenience. The retail store also acts as a live showroom for the wholesale side of the Ornelas family business that shows the independent grocers not only how to merchandise, but also how to properly use and execute POS (point of sale) materials. We even create the POS materials for our retail operators in our advertising department. We want to give the smaller independents that big store look and feel by showing them how bag stuffers, handouts, shelf talkers, etc will increase business. The retail store also shows store owners the footprints that many of the items take up on the shelves and also how much space is needed to promote displays of sale products.

Future plans are to open 4 more family owned locations and franchise out an additional 95 stores that will be logistically located so they can be serviced by the Ornelas wholesale distribution company that already serves independent grocers. Plans also include gas pumps and an expanded kitchen along with an enclosed dining area.

Featuring a gorgeous fourth priming Criollo '98 wrapper and a balanced blend of Honduran and Dominican-grown Piloto Cubano long-fillers, it's got plenty of gusto too, but without all the knee-knocking strength Camacho is known for. That means you can get behind the wheel of this handmade almost any time of day. As my feeble minded co-worker likes to say, "you can savor the flavor all day long."

Camacho Criollo Figurado received a well-deserved 92-point rating noting: "Draped in an eye-catching Colorado wrapper, this well-rolled torpedo smokes perfectly, imparting profound cocoa notes, earthiness and savory leather."

ROCKY PATEL – EDGE HABANO

Edge Habano cigars represents the next chapter in Rocky Patel's 91-rated Edge saga. Known as some of the industry's most full-tilt, yet well-balanced blends, the Edge Habano had some pretty big shoes to fill. Marking the first Edge to utilize purely Nicaraguan tobaccos, each Edge Habano shows up well-equipped for a full-flavored ride. On the outside awaits a dark and feisty Nicaraguan Habano wrapper, patiently aged and fermented. This leaf conceals a rich and powerful core of long-filler tobaccos hailing from the volcanic black soils of Nicaragua's most fertile regions. Together this recipe strikes up a bevy of bold yet refined flavors. Notes of cedar, spice, black pepper, cocoa, and earth mingle with copious amounts of uber-smooth full-bodied smoke. The 4-5 year old Dominican long-fillers are masterfully blended to promote a smooth, but eventful flavor that's hearty and robust. Together, these tobaccos combine to satisfy even the most achieved palates.

In addition to an astounding 94-rating, Ashton VSG was also named one of the Top 25 Cigars of 2013. The review stated, "Strong, oily, flavorful leaf that leaves an impression on the palate. It's one of the benchmark brands for Ashton... hearty flavor with a robust nuttiness and a caramel sweetness for balance."

FUENTE CASA CUBA DOBLE CINCO

Fuente Casa Cuba Doble Cinco

Casa Cuba, the first new cigar brand from the Fuente family in many years, has gone on sale in a limited capacity throughout select cigar stores. Today, the Arturo Fuente cigar brand is the linchpin in a cigarmaking empire overseen by Fuente Sr. and his son Carlos Fuente Jr. The company makes more than 30 million cigars a year, all of them by hand. For decades, Fuente Jr. has blended the company's cigars: Fuente Fuente OpusX, Arturo Fuente Rosado Sungrown Magnum R, even the Arturo Fuente Don Carlos, which is named after Fuente Sr.

Fuente Sr. blended Casa Cuba himself, using Ecuador-Havana wrappers and a mix of Cuban-seed Dominican filler and binder. With Casa Cuba, Fuente Sr. set out to recreate a taste of his early days in the cigar business.

OLIVIA MELANIO ROBUSTO

Strength:	Full
Shape:	Robusto
Wrapper:	Ecuador Sumatra
Origin:	Nicaragua

Olivia Serie V Melanio has arrived. The stunning follow-up to Olivia's 94-rated Serie V and coveted, limited release Serie V Maduro, I'll be perfectly honest with you, we had the chance to sample these lovelies fresh off the rolling table, and they were every bit as scrumptious as you could hope. My suggestion, get your Melanio cigars now before the backorders build.

Olivia Serie V Melanio will have you at hello, thanks to gorgeous Ecuadorian-grown Sumatra leaf that's dark, thick, oily, and seamless in appearance. Beneath this leaf, a flavorful blend of long-leaf ligeros from Nicaragua unites, including the Olivia's oldest, most prized leaves from Coedega and Estel, along with some extra tobaccos from Jalapa for more flavor and aroma. Each Melanio is full-bodied and full-flavored, with unique nuances such as black pepper, freshly-baked bread, and unsweetened cocoa. You might also notice some toast and lightly creamed coffee. Either way, you're in for a delicious treat from one of the most celebrated cigar-making families in Nicaragua, let alone the industry.

GURKHA EVIL TORO

A powerful son of a gun.
Introducing, Gurkha Evil...the latest in highly rated super-premiums from the prestigious family of cigars known as Gurkha. This rustic handmade combines a thick and leathery Brazilian wrapper with extensively aged Nicaraguan long-fillers secured by a feisty Dominican binder. Crafted into a variety of generous sizes, each Evil produces a medium to full-bodied array of flavor that remains smooth and balanced down to the nub. Hearty notes of pepper and woodmangle with earthy tones and a sweet, cedary finish. Both strength and flavor intensify during the burn, completing an eventful and powerful handmade built with the same uncompromising level of quality Gurkha is known for.

Gurkha Evil received a well-deserved 90-point rating, noting: "An attractive Torpedo that smokes evenly. The smoke is very foamy in character with hints of roasted nuts and a pleasant floral finish."

HENRY CLAY STALK TORO

2016 #22 Cigar of the Year - Rated 92
Henry Clay Stalk Cut Toro Connecticut (6" x 54) employs a technique which is the "stalk cut" part, as the name implies. The wrapper leaf is cut at the stalk and hung to cure letting more nutrients flow down into the leaf as it is hung to cure. This added technique gives the cigar a little extra earthiness to it. The blend includes Dominican piloto and olor, and 2013 Nicaraguan Criollo long-fillers, a Dominican piloto binder and a Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper which all create a very full-bodied taste. The Henry Clay brand was revived by Pete Johnson of Tatuaje cigars with this Stalk Cut line and he hasn't let us down yet. This one is definitely worth a try for the full-bodied fans.

LA AROMA MI AMOR BELICOSO

La Aroma de Cuba 'Mi Amor' is hand crafted in Don Pepin Garcia's Nicaraguan factory. Utilizing a dark, soothy Cuban-seed wrapper grown in Mexico and a robust Nicaraguan long-filler blend, Mi Amor offers a rich, medium to full-bodied profile. Brimming with notes of earth, cocoa, espresso, spices and a smooth, semi-sweet finish. Complex, flavorful, balanced and perfectly constructed, La Aroma de Cuba Mi Amor is thoroughly satisfying.

A former #12 cigar of the year from 2011, La Aroma de Cuba Mi Amor has once again been honored on the Top 25 List for 2016. Coming in at #12 and receiving a well deserved 93-rating, noting: "Packed solid with tobacco, this box-pressed belicoso integrates notes of cocoa bean and coffee with sweet woodiness and a touch of leather. There's a touch of licorice on the finish."

RAMON ALLONES

When it comes to Cuban cigars Ramon Allones isn't exactly a household name, as it's one of the smaller brands coming out of Cuba, but Habanophiles know it well. It's also a cigar that fans of more full-bodied tobacco tend to reach for, and the Specially Selected is probably the most recognized vitola in the Ramon Allones portfolio. Not that the portfolio is terribly large—over the years, official deletions have whittled down the brand to a mere three sizes. While there is indeed an intensity to these cigars, the Ramon Allones Specially Selected smokes of 2014 are also dynamic and, at times, elegant. Each puff is layered with earthy espresso bean but notes of marzipan and citrus show the cigar's more sophisticated side.

DON TOMAS ALLEGRO

Under the guidance of Villazon's renowned cigar master, Estelo Padron, the Don Tomas Clasico returns to its classic Honduran roots with new blends that once-again use the rich, full-flavored Honduran and Nicaraguan tobaccos that made the original Don Tomas one of the best Honduran cigars in the world. Expect a mild-to-medium bodied smoke with subtle coffee and toast flavors, and hints of spice.

LIGA PRIVADA #9 FLYING PIG

Liga Privada No. 9 Flying Pig

Delivers an initial attack of dried raisin, currant, and cognac flavors (w/ some woody and coffee flavors in the background). It then transitions into a comfortable creamy profile of raisin and cognac. Halfway through, flavors of dark/heavy wood and dark chocolate take over. Past the middle point you will get some cereal that came through and mixed in with the previous dark chocolate notes. Close to the nub, the initial flavors come back but in a heavier, brooding form.

A. FUENTA ANEJO #46

Arturo Fuente Anejo Reserva #46 Cigars are a full-bodied Dominican cigar with unique aging process that leaves a very distinct finish on the palate. Typically, only available around Father's Day and Christmas, this cigar is one of the hardest to find and exclusive cigars in the world. A dark maduro wrapper rolled around the best filler and binder from the Dominican Republic, then aged to perfection for 5 years in cognac barrels.

BRICK HOUSE CORONA LARGA

2016 #17 Cigar of the Year - Rated 93

The original Brick House cigars were Cuban puros, handmade with the finest Havana tobaccos. Third-generation cigar makers, Eric and Bobby Newman, have recreated this vintage cigar brand by blending specially aged Nicaraguan tobaccos with hearty Havana Subido™ wrapper leaves to match the rich, well-balanced flavor of their grandfather's Brick House cigars. Handmade in Nicaragua, these flavorful cigars are designed to be enjoyed and shared just like J.C.'s friends and family would have done 150 years ago with the original Brick House cigars.

NUB CONNECTICUT TUBO

Rated a "2008 Best Buy" by Cigar Insider, the Nub by Oliva is a stunning innovation that delivers only the most enjoyable part of the cigar, that tasty "sweet spot" occurring in the last 3 1/2" to 4" of a full sized cigar. The Nub will smoke for as long as a standard sized Toro or Churchill but it comes out swinging with its full, savory flavor from the very first puff. With its seed grown in Ecuador, the Connecticut wrapper is known for its mild flavor. Rolled as a Nub, the Connecticut delivers a surprisingly complex and creamy flavor.

Frequently Asked Questions on Cigar Auctions and Bidding

- Why does my order show that one of my winning lots is on backorder?
- How do I set my account to use Auto-Bid?
- Can I combine my invoices to save on shipping costs?
- How do I change my shipping preference?
- How do I know if I won?
- If I win more than one item, can you send them together so I can save on shipping charges?
- What are my shipping options?
- Do you ship internationally?

Why does my order show that one of my winning lots is on backorder?

Our backorder rate is less than 1% of all of the items. While we continuously strive to make that number 0%, there are a few reasons why a backorder may occur. Almost always it is due to an inventory discrepancy resulting from damage, a receiving mis-count, a supplier mis-shipment, or other changes in inventory that occur beyond our control between the opening and closing of a given lot.

How do I set my account to use Auto-Bid?

Auto-Bid can be used on a lot by lot basis. When you place a bid, your bid will automatically be populated with the minimum amount currently needed to win. Entering a Max Bid will initiate Auto-Bid. How it works: Each time you are overbid, Auto-Bid increases your bid by the established bid increment for that lot, until you reach your maximum bid. If someone else is using Auto-Bid, you can quickly arrive at your maximum or an amount in between.

Bids are won based on two criteria – dollar amount and time. Example – If two people use Auto-Bid and both are using the same maximum bid, the person who placed their bid first will win that item.

Can I combine my invoices to save on shipping costs?

CigarBid is highly automated and winnings are processed DAILY or WEEKLY depending on your account Shipping Frequency (/account/preference/shipping/). Then, lots are combined automatically to produce a single order and assigned a confirmation number for that set of lots. If you are a DAILY shipper and wish to combine lots from multiple days, you can do so by selecting WEEKLY shipping and your orders will be processed once per week on the day you select. If you are a weekly shipper, we unfortunately cannot combine lots spanning multiple weeks.

How do I change my shipping preference?

Log in to your account and select Shipping Frequency (/account/preference/shipping/).

Note: Shipping Preference updates are made once per week, immediately following the processing of "Weekly" orders.

How do I know if I won?

We will send you an email confirmation of your winning bid, the item description, and quantity. Also, you will receive an End of Day Order Summary at midnight detailing the total charges to your credit card. This is done to factor in shipping savings for you in cases where you may have won multiple items on any given day (more on Shipping Savings Program (/help/shipping/2069133/#shipping-savings-program)).

If I win more than one item, can you send them together so I can save on shipping charges?

In most cases, yes. For your convenience, an Order Summary invoice containing your entire order activity will be automatically emailed to you either daily or weekly (depending the option you selected), and will include information on all the bids you may have won during that period. This summary will help you save on shipping charges by combining items won during the period and will reflect the charges applied to your credit card (more on Shipping Savings Program (/help/shipping/2069133/#shipping-savings-program)).

What are my shipping options?

Standard shipping is UPS Ground or USPS or a combination of both. If you select a Post Office Box or Rural Route Box as your shipping address your shipment will be delivered by USPS. Shipping times are estimates and are not guaranteed unless otherwise noted. Expedited shipping methods are not available. All orders will ship within 72 hours of closing and you can expect arrival within 2 to 6 business days after shipping, depending on your location.

Do you ship internationally?

We currently ship to the US and APO addresses only. We do not handle international shipping at this time.

DESCRIPTION

The result of five intense years of research, the famous Cohiba cigar brand is now available in limited quantities in the US market.

Often called "red dot" Cohibas due to the markings on the band, this exquisite cigar offers a medium-bodied flavor and a strong, smooth and incredibly rich character. Handmade with a toothy Cameroon wrapper and aged mixture of Dominican-grown Piloto Cubano tobaccos, Cohiba's blend sets the standard among today's premium cigars.

Cohiba received well-deserved '91' and '92' ratings noting: "Well made with a good draw, Cohiba has a solid core of distinctly nutty flavors that have an underlying creaminess. French peanut notes and a touch of caramel on the finish make this a very tasty medium-bodied smoke."??

DESCRIPTION

The result of five intense years of research, the famous Cohiba cigar brand is now available in limited quantities in the US market.

Often called "red dot" Cohibas due to the markings on the band, this exquisite cigar offers a medium-bodied flavor and a strong, smooth and incredibly rich character. Handmade with a toothy Cameroon wrapper and aged mixture of Dominican-grown Piloto Cubano tobaccos, Cohiba's blend sets the standard among today's premium cigars.

Cohiba received well-deserved '91' and '92' ratings noting: "Well made with a good draw, Cohiba has a solid core of distinctly nutty flavors that have an underlying creaminess. French peanut notes and a touch of caramel on the finish make this a very tasty medium-bodied smoke."??

DESCRIPTION

Stepping into uncharted territories

Cohiba, the king of the crop, the deity of the Dominican, has accomplished almost everything there is in this industry. One of the most recognizable names in the land, Cohiba has pumped out countless Dominican favorites over the years. Now, they are on to new horizons, getting their feet wet for the first time in the fertile soils of Nicaragua with the release of the Cohiba Nicaragua.

This concoction of finely aged leaves boasts a bolder profile than many we've come to know from Cohiba. Adorned with a milk chocolate Sun Grown Colorado Oscuro wrapper, this prize looks good enough to eat. Brimming with Nicaraguan long-fillers from Jalapa and Esteli all hugged by a Nicaraguan binder also from Jalapa, this is one medium to full-bodied masterpiece prime for the pickin'. Complex notes of cedar, leather, and pepper meld beautifully causing those who partake to begin frantically searching for another as soon as they see the nub is in reach.

Cohiba Nicaragua was recently honored with a well-deserved 91-rating. The review stated, "Notes of white pepper and cumin lead to a bold coffee bean character before the sweet, fruity finish. It's a dark and oily cigar that draws and burns evenly."

Mazo of 5 cigars.

DESCRIPTION

The most legendary name in cigars, gold plated.

When you see the name Cohiba on a cigar band, you already know you're in for a good experience. The folks who make them are very aware of this, and they work hard to uphold that reputation. Since 1966, they haven't done anything halfway, and certainly don't cut corners. That's why when I heard that they were finally going to release a cigar with a Connecticut wrapper, I could hardly contain myself. I couldn't wait to get my hands on a box.

The blend for this cigar is, in a word, impressive. Inside, a veritable feast of Brazilian Mata Fina, Dominican Olor, Dominican Piloto Cubana, and Nicaraguan Jalapa fillers dancing beneath a rich, flavorful Mexican San Andres binder. But let's be honest, it's the wrapper that caught your eye, and for good reason. This beautiful blonde leaf is from Ecuador's Los Rios province, and grown beneath natural cloud cover yielding a beautiful golden color and almost imperceptible veins. Expect a bounty of cream, toast, nuts, and a subtle spice that'll go perfect with your morning coffee, or any occasion worth celebrating. It's the most well-known name in cigars, with the best-selling wrapper leaf, how could you go wrong?

DESCRIPTION

Cohiba Puro Dominicana packs so much flavor, even Fidel himself will be jealous. This enchanting cigar hit the hopper in 1990, using 30 years worth of tobacco grown throughout the Dominican Republic to develop the perfect Cohiba. A Cohiba that is purely Dominican, but blended to provide a full-bodied, full-flavored profile that is purely Cohiba. Well folks, it's here. Cohiba Puro Dominicana is robust and eventful, thanks to an oily Dominican natural wrapper that cloaks a bold recipe of Dominican long-fillers. To maximize these tobaccos, each leaf was patiently aged 'en tercio', within charcoaled wooden barrels producing a satisfying, oaky flavor with ample spice that's smooth and balanced throughout. Powerful, yet refined and elegant, this is the Cohiba you've been asking for!

Each bid is for one (1) single cigar.

DESCRIPTION

ready yourself, this one's got some kick!

The Cohiba Puro Dominicana cigar brings the heat. This is a flavorful sucker, an enchanting cigar that is purely Dominican, a 100% puro, one blended to provide a full-bodied, full-flavored profile that is purely Cohiba. Cohiba Puro Dominicana is robust and eventful, thanks to an oily Dominican natural wrapper that cloaks a bold recipe of Dominican long-fillers. To maximize these tobaccos, each and every hand of tobacco was patiently aged 'en tercio', within charcoaled wooden barrels producing a satisfying, oaky flavor with ample spice that's smooth and balanced throughout. Powerful, yet refined and elegant, this is the Cohiba cigar you've been asking for!

*Each bid is for one single cigar.

DESCRIPTION

An Inclusive Luxury

Cohiba – the brand that transformed its Cuban roots into a modern day legend. Anyone who knows anything about cigars has heard the name Cohiba. Every cigar in this portfolio is a beloved gem, praised for complex flavors and extravagant tastes. Now there's a new Cohiba blend to be coveted by all – and it comes at a more inclusive price point.

Cohiba Blue is rolled up into four crowd pleasing vitolas that showcase a gorgeously smooth Honduran wrapper which will wake the palate up right off the bat. Blue is filled with a three-country blend of Nicaraguan, Dominican, and Honduran tobaccos that are all held together by a Honduran habano binder. Produced in the Dominican Republic but heavy on the Honduran tobacco, this new gem is an inviting medium-bodied blend that is rife with rich hints of sweet leather, earth, cream, and cinnamon. It's about time we could all indulge in another fine Cohiba, give Blue a taste and don't look back.

DESCRIPTION

Introducing Cohiba Black, a fantastic new blend crafted by Daniel Nunez that’s juicy and bold. To create this blend, a jet-black Connecticut Broadleaf wrapper was used. Thick, oily and silky to the touch, this leaf is just simply gorgeous. A 3-year old, tercio-aged Dominican Piloto leaf serves as the binder, while a robust mixture of Mexican and Dominican long-leaf tobaccos combine for the filler. Aged and blended to perfection, this super-smooth cigar is layered with rich, robust flavors complemented by a satisfying, medium to full-bodied strength.

Each bid is for one (1) single cigar.

DESCRIPTION

eady yourself, this one's got some kick!

The Cohiba Puro Dominicana cigar brings the heat. This is a flavorful sucker, an enchanting cigar that is purely Dominican, a 100% puro, one blended to provide a full-bodied, full-flavored profile that is purely Cohiba. Cohiba Puro Dominicana is robust and eventful, thanks to an oily Dominican natural wrapper that cloaks a bold recipe of Dominican long-fillers. To maximize these tobaccos, each and every hand of tobacco was patiently aged 'en tercio', within charcoaled wooden barrels producing a satisfying, oaky flavor with ample spice that's smooth and balanced throughout. Powerful, yet refined and elegant, this is the Cohiba cigar you've been asking for!

*Each bid is for one single cigar.

DESCRIPTION

Cohiba Puro Dominicana packs so much flavor, even Fidel himself will be jealous. This enchanting cigar hit the hopper in 1990, using 30 years worth of tobacco grown throughout the Dominican Republic to develop the perfect Cohiba. A Cohiba that is purely Dominican, but blended to provide a full-bodied, full-flavored profile that is purely Cohiba. Well folks, it's here. Cohiba Puro Dominicana is robust and eventful, thanks to an oily Dominican natural wrapper that cloaks a bold recipe of Dominican long-fillers. To maximize these tobaccos, each leaf was patiently aged 'en tercio', within charcoaled wooden barrels producing a satisfying, oaky flavor with ample spice that's smooth and balanced throughout. Powerful, yet refined and elegant, this is the Cohiba you've been asking for!

Each bid is for one (1) single cigar.
